

Mononk Jules* by Jocelyn Sioui

Show in French with subtitles in English
 Documentary play and puppets
 All ages, From 14 years | 2 hours

Mononk Jules puts back together some of lesser known pieces of Indigenous History, the parts that are not taught. Jocelyn Sioui fasten the threads of his great-uncle's story, who was one of the greatest native heroes of the 20th century, who fell into a gap in our collective memory.

Jules Sioui's combat led him to sacrifice his life in a series of hunger strikes for the independance of indigenous people. Surrounded by screens and models where historical figures and images come to life, Jocelyn Sioui takes us at the bottom of an archive box, from which we emerge changed. Funny, touching, energetic, Mononk Jules is a captivating story delivered with great authenticity.

Jocelyn Sioui, director, author, performer and creator

Achille Martineau, technical director and sound and light management

Joshua Patoine, video control

Ariane Roy, assistant to the director

Mélanie Baillairgé, set, puppets and accessories design

Luzio Altobelli, composer and sound designer

Gaspard Philippe, video design

Mathieu Marcil, lighting design

